

History Geography Learning Challenge – Summer Term – Y5 – Were the Anglo Saxons really smashing?

History/Geography Link	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Britain's settlements by Anglo-Saxons and Scots- Anglo-Saxon invasions; settlements; kingdoms; names and places; art and culture and Christian conversion.</li> </ul>
English Link	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Opportunities for research about Anglo-Saxons – focusing on the impact on British history.</li> <li>• Opportunities for distinctive research on famous Anglo-Saxons as well as Alfred the Great.</li> <li>• Children will focus specifically on common names and words we use today that derive from Anglo-Saxon times.</li> </ul>
Maths Link
Creative Art Link	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Children will design and make their own broaches based on the patterns commonly used by Anglo-Saxons.</li> <li>• Children work as a group to design and make an Anglo-Saxon settlement having carried out research in the first instance.</li> </ul>
Expressive Art Link
Computing Link	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Opportunities for internet research about Anglo-Saxons – focusing on the impact on British history.</li> </ul>